

Mission: we are here to make people healthier

Strategic priorities: localized, integrated, efficient, and aligned care

Service area: based in State College, PA, serving five counties with more than 400,000 people

Facts: 2,300+ employees, 225,000+ outpatient visits and 51,000+ emergency department visits per year, A category bond rating

Mount Nittany Health is comprised of:

- Mount Nittany Medical Center
- Mount Nittany Physician Group
- The Foundation for Mount Nittany Medical Center
- Mount Nittany Health Children's Advocacy Center of Centre County

Advancements in quality:

- Primary Stroke Center Certification
- Gold seal of approval for inpatient diabetes
- Anticoagulation clinic Center of Excellence
- ACE accreditation for Cardiac Cath Lab
- National Children's Alliance accreditation for Children's Advocacy Center

Growth in care and access:

- Mount Nittany Physician Group: 130+ providers in primary and specialty care services across 15 locations in Centre and Mifflin counties
- CANCER CARE PARTNERSHIP: a partnership with Penn State Hershey Cancer Institute
- More than $13 million in community benefit last year
- $209 million invested in the community through capital investments since 2009
- Training full time third and fourth-year medical students with Penn State Hershey College of Medicine
- Locally training post-graduate physicians through Family Medicine Residency Program with Penn State Hershey beginning July 1, 2015

Our promise:

- Improve access to care
- Identify and grow needed services
- Enhance facilities
- Cultivate relationships with community partners
- Live our vision, mission, priorities, and key initiatives to become the health leader for our region and the #1 source for health information, service, and care

Follow us on social media and mountnittany.org.

Steve Brown is the president and chief executive officer of Mount Nittany Health. A Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives, Brown is a graduate of Thiel College, and earned his Master's degree in health services administration from The Pennsylvania State University. His passion for healthcare administration has culminated into more than 38 years of administrative and executive level experience in healthcare, with 30 of those years spent in CEO positions at hospitals in Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Washington state. He and his wife, Mary, live in State College and have two sons and three grandchildren, all of whom live in the Philadelphia area.