

John Knowles, CADC

John is currently the Senior Marketing Representative for Clearbrook Treatment Centers. A seasoned clinician and administrator in the addiction and mental health field for over 30 years, John has been involved in leading start up and management of three highly successful inpatient treatment programs in Pennsylvania, New York and New Hampshire. John is a Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor (CADC) in Pennsylvania and is trained in the Johnson Institute Model for interventions. He received his B.S. in Business, Marketing and Economics with a specialization in Addiction Treatment Administration and an MA in Social Policy from SUNY Empire State College, Saratoga, New York. John has completed both the Rutgers University School of Addiction Studies and also the Rutgers University Advanced School of Addiction Studies. He has had additional education and training in organizational management and leadership through the Levinson Institute at Harvard University, and additional clinical training and study has occurred at institutions including Bloomsburg, East Stroudsburg, Villanova, Georgetown, and Syracuse Universities. John served for six years on the Executive Steering Committee for the New York State Education Department's, Professional Assistance Program (PAP) and has extensive experience working with impaired professionals, young adults and adolescents.

A person in long term recovery, John is married to Stacy for 35 years and the proud father of Army Captain Kyle P Knowles, MBA, Iraqi war veteran and currently Administrator of the ROTC program at UMASS-Amherst; Collin Knowles a 2004 NCAA Champion in men's lacrosse and currently a professional lacrosse player in Denver, Colorado where he also is the Head Coach of the Boulder High School Lacrosse team, winning Colorado Coach of the Year in 2014; and Jonathan Knowles a combat veteran and four year member of the United States Marine Corps now residing in Scranton, PA where he is employed by the Lackawanna County Probation Department and serves as Head Coach of the Scranton Prep Lacrosse team. John is also father in law to Christy Knowles, LCSW and grandfather to Abigail and Kaylee.