Tom Shepstone

Author, Energy Security and Freedom

Tom Shepstone is president of the Shepstone Management Company, Inc. and author of the blog, “Energy Security and Freedom,” formerly “Natural Gas NOW.” Shepstone Management Company, Inc. is a planning and research firm that has represented both public and private clients, throughout New York and Pennsylvania, including members of the natural gas, housing and transportation industries.

Mike Atchie

Director, Community & Project Outreach, The Williams Companies

The Williams Companies handles approximately one third of the natural gas in the United States that is used every day to heat our homes, cook our food and generate our electricity. Williams works closely with customers to provide the necessary infrastructure to serve growing markets and safely deliver natural gas products to reliably fuel the clean energy economy. With interstate natural gas pipelines and gathering & processing operations throughout the country, we reliably deliver value to our employees, investors, customers and communities by running our business with authenticity and a safety-driven culture, leading our industry into the future.

Matt Coday

President & Founder, Oil & Gas Workers Association

Oil & Gas Workers Association is a grassroots, independent trade association working to secure, grow, and sustain American oil and gas jobs and fighting for American workers. OGWA is not a union. The organization is proudly run for and by oil & gas workers. OGWA represents everyone in the US who works in oil and gas and every American whose job is supported by our vital industry.
