Stacy Garrity

Pennsylvania State Treasurer

As the 78th Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, businesswoman and retired U.S. Army Reserve Colonel Stacy Garrity is focused on transparency, cutting waste and fees, returning more than $4.5 billion in unclaimed property to its rightful owners, and making education affordable for Pennsylvanians.

Stacy was elected to her first term on November 3, 2020, and was sworn into office on January 19, 2021. She was elected to her second term on November 5, 2024, and was sworn in on January 21, 2025.

As Pennsylvania Treasurer, Stacy oversees an office of more than 300 employees and is tasked with protecting more than $170 billion in state assets. Among her many duties, she serves as a fiscal watchdog for the state and manages the PA 529 College & Career Savings Program, Keystone Scholars, the PA ABLE Savings Program for people with disabilities, and the INVEST program for local government agencies and nonprofit organizations. She also administers the state's unclaimed property program.

As a veteran, Stacy is also focused on returning the hundreds of military decorations being safeguarded in Treasury's vault. These medals and other decorations usually come to Treasury from forgotten safe deposit boxes and include dog tags, medals, campaign ribbons, Purple Hearts, and even Bronze Stars. She has returned more than 450 military decorations to the veterans who earned them or their families, including 11 Purple Hearts and 3 Bronze Stars.

Stacy believes that Pennsylvanians are entitled to lives of prosperity and fulfillment.
